Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, ? No. 1102 Hull Street. 5

The Manchester Fire Department is new equipped with good telephone connections. The old 'phone was put in yesterday and adds materially to the service that can be rendered, as with both 'phones all sections of the city can be reached. In the past the city has been liable to have a dangerous fire at any time resulting from delay caused by some one not being able to reach a new 'phone. With the new hose which the Commissioners ordered at their last meet. ing, the department will be in excellent condition and a pride to the city. Chief Crooks has a plan to make the taps to the plugs a half inch larger, which would the plugs a half men larger, which would make it more convenient when buying new hose. At the present time, the hose has to be of a special order, and is naturally more expensive.

The Commissioners will gradually add to the needs of the department until every want is supplied. The number of the old 'phone is 513, and is in good work-

WANT ANOTHER ORDER.
A movement is on foot among the cit-izens of Manchester to start a lodge of Elks. A petition will be presented to the Grand Lodge at their meeting in February signed by probably a hundred of the most prominent men in the city. Already there are fifty-two names on the list ifested in the proposed movement. When it comes to the attention of the people it comes to the attention of the people now they wonder why the lodge has not been chartered here before. There are now several asouncils of the Junior Order and a Masonic Lodge, Odd Fellows, Knights, of Pythias. Royal Areanum. Golden Horseshoe, and, in ,act, every order but the Elks. If the interest con-tinues to grow it is safe to presume that the lodge will start in the city with a

I finally made up my mind that the good doctors were guessing; and hearing from different friends such good reports of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I tried that. I bless the day I did, for it was the dawning of a new life for me. I used five bottles before I was cured, but five bottles before I was cured, but when they were taken I was a well woman once more. HASKINS-JONES.

A Beautiful Wedding in the Episcopal Church in Llackstone.

(Spicial Dispatch to The Times.)

BLACKSTONE, VA., Dec. II.—The most brilliant society event that has occurred in Blackstone the present season took place at the Episcopal Church this evening at 5:30 o clock, when Miss Fannie Vaughan Jones became the bride of Colonel Meade Haskins.

The interior of the Episcopal Church was beautifully decorated. The entire space in rear of the chancel railing was banked with evergreens, consisting of ce-dar, holly and potted plants, among which soft lights burned to complete the bewitching effect.

First the ushers, Messrs. P. Stith. C.
L. Carter, L. H. Stokes, W. A. Taylor,
Walton Epes, Samuel Hurt, H. S. Williams and Dr. George Seay, entered two and two along the right and left aisles.
Then the waiters, Misses Bena Haskins, Martha Epes, Lizzie Connally, Jennie Irby, Isie Epes and Sue Armstrong, en-tered in twos along the left aisie, while their corresponding gentlemen waiters, Massrs, Horace Hardaway, Frank Epes R. B. Spencer, J. D. Crawley, Samuel F. Epes and Colonel H. H. Carter, en-tered in twos along the right aisle; the lternate lady and gentleman crossing in front of the chancel and taking positions on opposite sides.

Next came the maids of honor, Misses Mary Venable Jones and Louise Haskins, the former along the left aisle preceding the bride and the latter along the right aisle preceding the groom.

Then the bride entered along the left aisle, accompanied by her cousin, Mr. J. Crawley Jones, of Norfolk, who gave the bride away, while along the left aisle approached the groom, in company with his best man, Hon. W. A. Watson. The bride and groom met in front of the chancel railing, behind which stood the officiating minister, Rev. Dr. Theo. WILL TAKE RECESS TILL FEBRUARY

This Course Agreed Upon for the Legislature.

REPORTS TO BE MADE TO-DAY

Interest in the Outcome Gossio of Both Bodies.

The Triangular Committee, composed of representatives of the Constitutional Convention and both branches of the General Assembly, named for the purpose of agreeing upon a plan of procedure for the latter, body as to a recess and further session, met in the enrolling room of the House yesterday afternoon and after a long conference agreed upon a report, which will be made to the three houses at their sessions today. three houses at their sessions to-day.

The report provides that the Legisla-ture shall take a recess next Friday, December 20th, and reassemble on Wednesday, February 19, 1902. The convention members favored an adjournment sine die, and the reassembling of the Legislature subject to the call of the convention. This was understood to have been tacitly agreed upon at an informal conference of all the members yesterday morning, but upon reassem-bling in the afternoon the legislative members had decided to press their original idea to adjourn to a fixed day. The report agreed upon will go through the Senate and House to-day without a hitch but it is expected to cause some trouble in the convention, and may provoke a lively debate. While the convention members of the conference committee wanted an adjournment subject to their call, they did not press their views in the conference, and the report was the result of a perfectly harmonious session. Hon.

John Goode, president of the convention,
presided at the conference.
There are already some slight evidences of friction, and a member of the convenof triction, and a memoer of the conven-tion said last night that he feared there would be some feeling before the two bodies finally disposed of the many mat-ters with which they will have to deal. The legislators urge that there is other business of importance to claim their at tention, even though the convention may not have completed its work when they return here in February. To-day's developments in connection with the report of the conference committee in the sev-eral houses will be looked for with great interest.

There is a coincidence in connection with the seats of two members of the House and two of the convention. The members are Messrs. R. E. Lee, Jr., and N. B Early, Jr., of the former, and Eppa Hunton, Jr., and L. C. Stuart, of the latter. The members occupy the same seats in the two bodies. One is a grand-son and namesake of General R. E. Lee, another a close kinsman of the late General Jubal Early; another the son of General Eppa Hunton, a distinguished Confederate general, and still another the nephew of the brave and knightly the nepnew of the brave and single, J. E. B. Stuart. Three of them are juniors, and Messrs. Lee and Early-were first basemen on the Washing on and Lee and V. M. I. baseball teams, respectively, at the same time, they having attended these schools during the same period.

Hon. E. E. Montague, who was on Tues day night named by the Democratic caucus to succeed the late Baker F. De as judge of his County Court, must have felt proud of the splendid support given nim by his neighbors and friends and of the warm congratulations that were showered upon him in the lobbies after Nearly every the caucus adjourned. Nearly every prominent leader in his immediate section was here lobbying for him and they were very happy over the result.

The Wood-Yard Democratic Club, of Hampton, sent a large delegation here to root for the distinguished young leader.

Hon. T. D. Jennings, of Lynchburg to-day presented in the House by request a bill appropriating $25,000 for an industrial exhibit on the part of Virginia at the St. Louis Exposition in 1903. The bill places the matter of getting up the exhibit and its management in the hands of the Commissioner of Agriculture, who is authorized to employ such assistants for the work as he may see fit. The bill went to the Con mittee on Finance.

The House Committee on General Laws held a meeting yesterday morning and reported favorably a number of char-

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new Catarrh cure, has the following advantages over other catarrh remedies:

Next—No secret is made of the com-position of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they contain the active principles of Eucryp-tus bark, red gum, blood root and Hydrastin, all harmless antiseptics which, however, are death to catarrhal germs wherever found, because they eliminate them from the blood.

Next-You cannot cure catarrh by local applications to the nose and throat, be-cause these are simply local symptoms and such treatment cannot possibly reach the real seat of catarrhal disease which is in the blood; for this reason, inhalers, douches, sprays and powders never really cure catarrh, but simply give temporary relief, which a dose of plain salt and water will do just as well.

Catarrh must be driven out of the system, out of the blood, by an internal remedy, because an internal remedy is the only kind which can be assimilated Stuart's Catarrh Tablets do this better than the old form of treatment, because they contain every safe specific known to modern science in the antiseptic form of the disease.

The motto of the paper is: "We speak for those who cannot speak for themselves." Above it was written: These are sentiments of the people of Virginia. It is not known that any of the convention members saw it.

There will certainly be no hasty legis-lation by the Senate. Mr. Lyle started the fight against placing bills upon the calendar directly after being introduced or when reported from the House. Mr. McIlwaine came to his support, and now a majority of the Senators will stand together in opposing hasty legislation,

Senator Shackelford is one of those who think that taxes may be reduced or "equalized." He is making a study of this subject is looking into the various phases of the question and posting him-self thoroughly with a view to making some effort to at least correct some of the burdensome features of the taxation

All of the committees of the Senate and the House have now a plenty of work to do. Scores of bills have been offered in each branch. The committees will, as a rule, meet in the morning.

COMMITTEE HEAR LIQUOR DEALERS

They Appear in Opposition to Harrison Tax Ordi-

The Finance Committee is up to its chin in great problems. Tuesday it heard the railroad magnates, yesterday the liquor dealers and manufacturers, and today it will, in conjunction with the Agricultural Committee, hear argument from manufactories and factories for and against a resolution to exempt new industries from local taxation.

The session yesterday was largely atended by representatives of the liquor interest from all parts of the State, and by members of town Councils. They universally protested against the Harrison laxation scheme, which provides for a high license to be levied exclusively by the State.
Mr. John M. Higgins introduced the speakers, and took occasion to pay the convention and the committee a most graceful compliment.

The saloon-keepers had as spokesman Mr. E. R. Woodward, of Roanoke, president of the State Liquor Dealers' Asso ciation; Mr. W. H. Zimmerman, of Rich-mond, and Mr. Thomas Fitzgibbon, of Norfolk. The speakers contended that the additional tax would drive numbers of dealers out of business; that if all revenue was taken away from towns and citles it would not be long before local option prevailed; that innumerable speak-easies would result, the local authorities having no financial interest in the business, relaxing their police supervision; the State would lose an immense amount of revenue because the local incentive to collect the tax would be destroyed.

The manufacturers were represented by Mr. A. von N. Rosenegk, who forcibly argued that the destruction of saloons meant the destruction of the breweries and the immense amount of capital and property they represented. He said brewers and manufacturers already to advance money to a great many dealers to pay the present license tax, and if it was increased they would be compelled to go out of business and the demand would be cut off.

All the speakers declared that high license; if the revenue was divided between the State and municipalities, would not be so serious. As proposed, the Bar-bour-Quaries resolution was not a circumstance to the havoc that an exclusive State revenue . !! nse would play with the legitimate conduct of the business.
Mr. Cephas Mowma, City Attorney Mr. Cephas Mowma, City Attorney of Roanoke, in behalf of that and other City Councils showed the disastrous effect the law would have on the revenues of the cities, and contended that the State would lose largely la reason of a failure to collect the revenue and the establishment of speak-easies that would not pay a dollar. All the speeches were brief and to the point, Mr. Fitzgibbon especially making a clear cut, impressive argument.
Besides a large delegation from Rich mond, the following out-of-town delegates were present: J. E. Prince. Thomas S. Fitzgibbon, S. C. Davidson, John Les-S. Fitzgibton, S. C. Davidson, John Les-ner, George Frank, C. H. Holliday, D. Malore, George-Palmer, and Sylvanus Stokes, of Norfolk; Joseph Joyce, A. B. Kemps, of Portsmouth; John Stanber, Berkley; O. E. Hatcher, Danville, and four delegates from Phoebus and Hamp-ton

The subcommittee, composed of Messrs. Boaz, Keezell, Hamilton, B. T. Gordon, and Meredith, will meet Friday afternoon to consider and report on the railroad, liquor license, and exemption of manufactures from the state of the second sec factures from local tax questions. full committee will not meet again until this report is ready to be made.
